Cold Wave Hits But Miss Freeze A Few Points

A cold wave hit the Panhandle Monday, dropping the temperature to 37 degrees. No moisture fell in Randall county.

Citizens were fearful that a freeze might come with the cold wave. Such a freeze would be disastrous to the early wheat and to the fruit.

According to long range weather predictions, it is now thought that the Panhandle will escape a freeze during the usual Easter cold wave.

Highway Work Shows Progress

Randall County Has a Large Number of Road Projects Under Contract

County Commissioners G. B. Heath and Clarence Beckman met Tuesday in Amarillo with the State Highway Commission. The only project presented was to extend the Buffalo Lake road north of Highway 60 to the Catholic Church in Umbarger. This was granted.

The Commission, while meeting in Austin, had previously approved the Buffalo Lake road, paving Western Avenue and Georgia Street, all in Randall county.

Work will start during the coming week on widening the highway between Canyon and Amarillo. Construction will start at the junction of Highways 87 and 60 north of Canyon. In making this a 4-lane highway to the top of the hill, it is now planned to widen the bridges to 72 feet. Some of the big trees along the creek have been moved back.

It is stated that plans are being drawn to widen the viaduct under the railroad and to extend the four lanes through Canyon. These plans will probably not be completed for several weeks.

Rockwell Home Has Oldest Asparagus Bed in the County

The oldest and largest asparagus bed in Randall County is believed to be the one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rockwell, four miles north of Canyon, according to Miss Lou Ella Patterson, county home demonstration agent.

Miss Patterson believes that asparagus and rhubarb are two vegetables which thrive especially well in the Texas Panhandle and have been overlooked by many gardeners.

In the Rockwell garden, 360 square feet are devoted to asparagus, the first of which was planted 24 years ago. Many varieties of this vegetable are included, but Mrs. Rockwell likes the Martha Washington best.

The secret of raising good asparagus is to give it plenty of water, Mrs. Rockwell believes. During the Spring, she cuts asparagus every day for at least 10 weeks.

Tomatoes are another specialty of the Rockwells. Tomato seed from their garden have been distributed throughout the county, as have seed from their peach, cherry, and apricot trees.

The Rockwells like to experiment. This year they have set out three "five in one" apple trees, hoping to get five varieties of apples from each tree.

Nor has beauty been neglected at the Rockwell home. Mrs. Rockwell grows African Bermuda grass and many flowers. Already in bloom are pansies, violets, daffodils, hyacinths, crocus, iris, and creeping phlox. Shrubbery and shade trees around the house include juniper, pine, ash, blue spruce, red bud maple, native and Chinese elm, and box elder.

Error in Name of Consumer President

The News listed the names of the newly elected officers and directors of the Consumers Fuel Association in last week's issue.

An error was made in the name of the president. Henry F. Miller was re-elected president, and not Wm. F. Miller, as the article stated.

Such errors creep into print when men with similar names live in the same community, in spite of the care of a newspaper.

Marker Placed For Goodnight

Newton Harrell Places Marker on His Ranch in Honor of Pioneer

A stone monument and bronze tablet has been placed at the original headquarters of the big J. A. Ranch established by Col. Chas. Goodnight in November of 1876.

The markers placed in the ceremony were given by Newton Harrell of Claude, on whose ranch the site is located. The Harrell family also served a barbecue dinner for the 25 persons who made their way down the trails of the Palo Duro canyon to the historic spot on April 13.

A short program marked the occasion.

"We feel that this tribute to Col. Goodnight is one that he deserves, and in behalf of the many men who worked for him on the J. A. I wish to say that they would feel honored to know this site is marked with an appropriate marker," said Mrs. Inez Doshier, whose father, Jim Christian, was one of Goodnight's top hands for several years.

Mr. Harrell, president, and a number of directors of the Panhandle - Plains Historical Society were present.

"There are a number of historic spots in the Panhandle which should be marked while they can be located," said Mr. Harrell. "These include the original headquarters of the first ranches established in this section. The Historical Society will be glad to sponsor the marking of any of these historic spots."

PANHANDLE PRESS MEETS

The 37th Annual Convention of the Panhandle Press Association was held Friday and Saturday in Amarillo. Records were smashed by this gathering to this extent;

There was a record attendance. 340 places were set for the banquet Friday night, and this was not sufficient to accommodate the crowd;

Colonel Ernest O. Thompson entertained the association for the 25th consecutive year. It is doubtful there is another man in the nation who has entertained a newspaper association so many times, and so well as Colonel Thompson;

There was unusual attendance at all the programs, with the association convention hall being well filled at all of the sessions;

The entertainment program was fine throughout;

Never before were there so many new faces attending the convention, as youthful publishers have taken over so many of the newspapers of this area. Many of them are returned veterans of World War II, who are doing a swell job in their chosen field;

Many of the "old timers" were missing, as many newspapers are still so shorthanded that the publishers could not get away;

The convention welcomed back Arthur G. Richardson, son of the founder of The Canyon News, who was publisher of the McLean News in 1912 when the association was given a shot in the arm, revitalized and sent on its way to growth, development and greater accomplishments. The few old timers who knew Arthur in the good old days were delighted to have him back to look over the association wheih had grown from a membership of only seven back in 1912 to more than 350 in 1946.

Those who attended this year returned to their homes, refreshed, with many new ideas; and a determination to return to the convention on April 9-10, 1947, when a larger number is expected to attend.

The Panhandle has been visited by one candidate for Governor, Cato March of Waco. He has a good platform, and a good personality. But he is getting no where with his campaign. And a few days ago we were visited by a man who wants to run, but wants to make sure of his position—Homer P. Rainey, deposed president of the university. Rainey has a smooth organization. A group of women are campaigning ahead of him. They go into a town, circulate among the citizens, telling them that Texas simply must have Rainey or the state is headed for perdition. They know how to wring tears out of the office towel. The next day in comes Rainey, attended by secretaries who round up potential supporters and let them look at, and talk with the man who wants to be governor. The scheme is based upon personal salesmanship. It lacks a lot of being as effective as Pappy O'Daniel's flour barrel, but it sells Rainey to a lot of people. Rainey may announce this week, or he may be waiting to see what Governor Coke Stevenson will do. As we have said many times before, we do not know Rainey, but his record convinces us that Texas cannot afford to have a man of his type in the Governor's office. He was fired because he was too little and too limited in vision for one job; and now threatens to ask the people to elect him to a more important job so that he can mess up the bigger affair.

Henry Wallace has chided those Democrats who are trying to put the bit in the mouths of all Democrats—for instance, the Texas Democratic State Committee. Henry remembers what the Roosevelt administration did to him. He is not in favor of attempting the same tactics. But he will have to stay away from the CIO crowd, or he will get sidetracked again when CIO has no further use for him.

President Truman has sidestepped the issue of Congress forcing Southern states to abolish the poll tax. He now says that this must be left up to the individual states. While this may be correct, the Supreme Court has virtually made it necessary to abolish poll tax payments.

We make so many errors that we wonder we can still live in Canyon. But it is refreshing to see top ranking executives make as glaring an error as we have committed. The other days our eyes popped out as we read a letter porporting to criticize our Congressman, Eugene Worley. Since the letter came from National Democratic Headquarters and was supposed to be signed by National Chairman Bob Hannegan, we wondered. But not for long. Here came a long telegram in a few hours stating that the letter was sent by mistake. It was supposed to be sent only to such districts as had Republican Congressman. This leads to the conclusion that if form letters are to be used, better have sane office help so that such errors are not made; and secondly, are all Republican Congressmen as bad as the letter charges? Remember, there are a lot of Democratic Congressmen who have not always gone down the line with the administration. They reserve the good old American right to think for themselves and to vote according to their judgment as to what was the best for the people of their district.

We can sympathize with President Truman and members of Congress who are trying to iron out the military situation. As we see it, the situation is grave; alarming, indeed. America is not a military nation. Our people revolt at the idea of the military getting too strong. But we are faced with the necessity of keeping strong enough military forces to show the world that we are ready to fight any dictator who may stick up his head and try to take over. Congressmen have their ears to the ground. They want to hold their jobs. They are not always free to vote their opinions on such controversial questions. It is too bad that this is the situation. The President is trying to save the armed forces from dissipation before peace is finally declared and some working basis is ironed out under UNO. Unfortunately we are the only nation which is rapidly breaking up our forces. The President is alarmed. We should be too, but we are not.

Publishers of the Panhandle Press Association are strong for Governor Coke Stevenson. A vast majority hope that he will return for a third term. Frankly, they are afraid that Homer P. Rainey will defeat any man from the big bunch of candidates who are now in the race—even Pappy O'Daniel, should he run. It looks to politicians down state that it will take Stevenson to defeat Rainey. Strong pressure is being put on the Governor to make this sacrifice, and get into the race. If Rainey should be elected, he will have things in a turmoil over the state, just as he had them in the university while he was president. Stevenson has the happy faculty of being able to get along with people, and to keep the state running smoothly. Texas needs Stevenson. If you want to see him continue in office, write him a letter today. Tell him what you think about the situation.

We have been somewhat amazed the past week to hear so many people, representing so many lines of business cuss OPA. They want to get rid of OPA, and are very loud in condemning this agency. We have griped about the arrogant and unreasonable rulings of OPA about as much as any one. But we know that it has saved America from as bad inflations as other nations of the world are enduring. Perhaps OPA should have been handled in a different manner. Mistakes have been made, and no doubt are being made today. But fundamentally the idea is good. Right now may be the time to kill OPA and turn the nation loose; but at the same time we would turn prices loose, and the nation would be headed for a quick head ache.

Texas now has a population of about seven million people.

OUR DEMOCRACY——by Mat

ODDS ON FAILURE

It is one thing to gamble, experiment and pioneer recklessly in lay activities; it is quite another to do it with the health of a nation. Proposals to establish a Federally controlled medical system are experiments with the odds strongly favoring failure.

A large portion of the nation's press is aware of the hazards of careless experiment in government-sponsored medical care. The Grand Rapids, Michigan, Press says:

"One might concede the need for Federal participation in the medical and hospital field were it not for one thing—and that is that nationally we have steadily been making notable progress in the extension of health services without the intervention of the government. On the other hand, there is no assurance that the quality or scope of medical care would be greatly advanced under any Federally supervised program. We do know, however, that such a program would be expensive, that it would compete with existing institutions and that it would bring virtual regimentation to a field where thousands of delicate problems depend for their solution on individual and confidential relationships."

Senator Tom Connally has announced as a candidate for re-election. A move was started last year to keep any opponent off the ticket. This will probably not succeed, as there are always fellows wanting to run for public office, regardless of the obstacles. It is enough to say, Tom Connally will not have a strong opponent, and it will not be necessary for him to make a campaign. But it will be a good thing for him to come back to Texas and speak in a few places. He could find out what was going on in the state. Too often those who stay in Washington too long feel that Washington knows all, and the folks at home do not know the score.

A national agency recently took a poll of weekly newspapers on the question of continuing OPA. 90% of the replies favored disbanding this agency. The fear was expressed that if governmental control was continued that the bureaucrats would slip this noose around the neck of the people so tightly that they could never get rid of this bureau. Maybe there is some sound sense in this reasoning.

It was argued by early day Christians that the world must necessarily be flat, because otherwise when Christ returned, He would have to make his appearance twice—once for the benefit of those living in each of the two hemispheres.

The higher one's original intellectual equipment, and the more continuously it is exercised, the less marked will be its decline as a person ages.

Byron once remarked about an acquaintance that he had "just enough learning to misquote."

The Bible does not say that "money" is "the root of all evil." The Scriptures say that "the love of money is the root of all evil"—and that is quite a different thing.

As Lincoln said in one of his debates with Stephen A. Douglas, "Judge Douglas would have you believe that a horse-chestnut and a chestnut horse are the same thing."

The Psalmist is quoted as saying, "All men are liars." But what he actually wrote was, "I said in my haste, all men are liars."

And one of the most garbled of all utterances is Jefferson's "That government is best which governs least." If that is true, then a government with only one law would be the best of governments. What Jefferson said, (I don't have the book at hand, so must give the substance from memory) was that after the lives, property and happiness of the people are made secure, that government is best which governs least.

A saying of Jefferson's which many have challenged is, "All men are created equal." Of course, that is not literally true because one man is stronger or swifter of foot or handsomer or taller or more adept at making music or money or a speech than another. I think that what Jefferson meant was that all men are created equal insofar as having equal rights because, after the first statement, he adds that men are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights—among them being "the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

So if a fellow is going to quote, he ought to quote it right—and not rip lift a sentence out by its roots from its context. "A little learning is a dangerous thing."

But even if the quotation is correctly given, it still may not be true, though a great man may have said it. Alexander Pope wrote, "Be not the first by whom the new is tried." If everybody adopted that principle, all of us would wait for somebody else to try out the new idea—flying in a plane or swallowing a raw oyster whole—and so all progress would cease.

Work Continues On Randall Annex

With basement floors already completed and work on painting, plumbing, and the electric system well advanced, constructors of Randall Hall annex report they expect this week a shipment of face brick and tile which will enable building to continue as scheduled.

Since original plans were drafted, several important changes have been made to alter both space and appearance of the new wing.

Two truly blue-eyed parents can only have blue-eyed children. However, most people who consider themselves blue-eyed actually have some brown-eye pigment, and in such a case they could have a brown-eyed child.

FOR GENERATIONS before the crucifixion of Jesus Christ, the cross was an emblem of sorrow, pain, and death. After the glorious demonstration of Christ over this cross by His resurrection on Easter Sunday, it became, to those who believed, the symbol of life abundant and eternal.

Today, Christ, the great burden bearer, brings hope for the future . . . that all may know the peace that accompanies faith in Him. Accept His invitation, "Come unto Me all ye that are heavy laden and I will give you rest," by attending the church of your choice on Easter Sunday.

This invitation is extended by churches and business firms listed on this page, urging you to attend church on Easter.

Baptist Church Had Good Revival

According to a report of pastor Roy L. Johnson, the revival services conducted last week at the First Baptist Church of Canyon by Robert C. Fling of Ennis, Texas, was very successful. There were more than forty public rededications to Christ and sixteen added to the membership of the church, with eleven of them coming on profession of faith for baptism. Two others professed conversion but did not ask for church membership or baptism.

One of the goals for the revival was a high Sunday School attendance and 552 were present Sunday morning, just four under the previous high set last October.

UNO Discussed at Rotary Luncheon by L. F. Sheffy

"UNO is not united; not all participants are nations; and certainly it is not organized," stated Dr. L. F. Sheffy, Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon.

The idea of a League of Nations was presented in the 17th century. At various times attempts were made to form a League in Europe. Each attempt broke down with another war.

The League of Nations functioned until 1938 when it broke down by World War II.

A new pattern was drawn at San Francisco; a working plan was formed at London; and now UNO is under its first trial at New York. The functions of each part, and the policies of UNO were discussed by the speaker.

The situation in Iran is the result of disagreement between Britain and Russia over the past 100 years. America, unwillingly or voluntarily, finds herself allied with Britain in the disputes which have arisen.

Mr. Sheffy does not believe that Russia will push her demands to the point of war. If UNO can weather the Iran and Spanish disputes, "it will be a tough baby," and ready to tackle any other problem.

The speaker's conclusion is that if the people of the world demand that UNO shall succeed, and will remain inactive for peace, UNO will live and keep world peace, even by force.

Rotary Anns will be entertained by the Club on the evening of April 30.

Visitors were: Sherman Higdon of Canyon; L. A. Vahue, E. Jobe, Irving Tolzein, Arch Hunsley, all of Amarillo.

TWETCHELS

An AMM instructor, who suspected his class was drowsing off on him, decided to catch everyone off base. So he suddenly dropped into double talk.

"You then take the loose sections of fendered smolg and gwelg them—being careful not to overheat the broughtabs. Then extract and wampf them gently for about a time and a half. Fwengle each one twice, then swiftly dip them in blinger (if handy). Otherwise discriminate the entire instrument in twetchels. Are there any questions?

"Yes," came a sleepy voice from the rear. "Please explain what twetchels are."

Now...no wheat used in beer or ale

Actually wheat has never been a large item in the brewing process—only $\frac{8}{10,000}$ of the entire U. S. wheat crop was used in 1945.

In accordance with United States Government policy, the brewing industry has used no wheat whatever since March 1, 1946.

OTHER MATERIALS CUT 30%

The other grains used have been reduced by 30%—that is, to 70% of the 1945 amount.

Wheat alone can solve the problem of feeding the hungry. The grains to which the industry is now restricted, are of a variety and grade not normally consumed by the people of the world as food.

LESS BEER AND ALE

Altogether, the brewing industry is using 30% less materials than in 1945. This results in a proportionately lower production. But since the current demand for beer and ale is about 25% greater than a year ago, the real shortage is nearer 50%.

Consequently, your dealer will not be able to supply you with all the beer and ale you would like. We know you will understand the reason for this.

* * *

What the President's Famine Emergency Committee asks us all to do

1. Save and share wheat and fat products . . . Go light on all foods that take wheat, fats and oils—save breads, macaroni, cakes, cookies, pastries and deep-fried foods. Use drippings for pan-frying. Save salad oil—use boiled dressings.
2. Buy and serve more plentiful foods . . . Balance diets with the more plentiful foods, such as potatoes, fresh fruits and vegetables.
3. Waste NO food . . . Dress up today's leftovers for tomorrow. Make every crust count with melba toast, crumb-toppings, bread puddings and stuffings. Take no more than you can eat. Clean your plate. Turn in unusable fat salvage promptly.

New Mexico and Texas Tech to Bring Track Teams Saturday

West Texas State Gets Meet in Site Change —Tennis to Be Included

West Texas State College track and field men will be seeking their fourth straight victory here Saturday afternoon, April 20, in a triangular meet with Texas Tech and the University of New Mexico. The meet will open at 2 p. m. It was originally scheduled at Albuquerque, N. M.

At the insistence of New Mexico, tennis matches will be a part of the meet.

Lloyd Johnson of Wheeler, great Buffalo speedster, has scored 34 3-4 points in three meets. He excels in the short dashes and the broad jump and is a member of the 440-yard relay team. In second place among the Buffalo point makers is Dwayne Lyons of Olton with 34. His events are the shot put, discus and javelin throw. His marks in these have steadily improved this season.

Joel Robertson of Amarillo continues to set the pace in the mile run and the two mile run. Don Leach of Wellington has made points in the high jump and Maurice Steen in the broad jump. Robertson has 22 points, Leach 14, and Steen 12. Don Farmer brought his total to 10 3-4 points by winning the high and low hurdles in the triangular meet with Texas Tech last Saturday. This was the first competition in the hurdles this season for the Buffs. Don Meyers, trying out for the pole vault for the first time, tied with six other contestants at Lubbock for second, third and fourth places.

West Texas State won the triangular meet at Lubbock with a score of 89½ to Texas Tech's 62½. In the previous week, the Buffs defeated Tech in a dual meet here 84 to 48.

Buffs Defeat 2 Old Rivals

Locals Win Hurdles At Lubbock — Cowboys Get Only 12 Points

West Texas State's high spirited and steadily improving track and field team won its third meet of the year Saturday night in a dual event at Lubbock, in which Texas Tech and Hardin-Simmons University were the other contenders. The Buffaloes rolled up 89½ points to 62½ points for the Red Raiders. The luckless Cowboys made only 12 points.

In a high school meet held at the same time, Lubbock nosed out Amarillo by the margin of a fourth place in the broad jump, the concluding event.

Coach Windy Nicklaus' men took first place in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, mile run, two mile run, 880 relay, 120 high hurdles, 220 low hurdles, high jump, and javelin throw. Johnson dominated the short dashes and also won the broad jump. Robertson continued to take the long distance jaunts. A surprise came in the hurdles when Don Farmer won both of them. It was the first meet of this season in which the Buffaloes had run the hurdles.

Hardin-Simmons' only first place came in the pole vault, which Futch won at ten feet.

Summary:

Duflot Will Speak At Meet Friday

NACOGDOCHES, April 15—West Texas State College will be represented at the meeting of the Southwestern Social Science Association to be held in Fort Worth on April 19 and 20, Dr. Wiley D. Rich, president of the group announced today.

Prof. J. L. Duflot will read a paper entitled: "Curriculum Making by Legislative Enactment" in the sociology section on Saturday morning.

"You come into this court and state that, because you believe in signs you refuse to go home and live with your wife. A man living in this age shouldn't let superstition break up his home!"

"Jedge, 'tain't superstition Ah's afeard of, but Ah do believe in signs. Fo' de las three nights aftuh Ah'd gone to bed, Ah could heah dat woman honin' mah razor."

Frank King Will Quit Schools After 53-Year Service

Fifty-three years in the Texas public school system is the record of E. Frank King of Amarillo, ex-student of West Texas State who will retire in June. He is principal of an elementary school in Amarillo.

Mr. King began teaching in a Fannin County rural school in 1892. From the county schools, he went to Bonham High School, where he stayed ten years. Then he was superintendent at Wolfe City five years. He was elected superintendent at Canyon in 1908 and he remained here until 1913. Next, he headed the schools at Colorado for eight years.

In 1925, he was elected to his present position in Amarillo.

He attended West Texas State during the summers of 1934, 1935, and 1936, and also did work by correspondence.

His school career covers a period in which Texas has had tremendous population, industrial, and educational growth. He can remember when the state apportionment was $4.50 . . . when 40 per cent of the teachers of the state held only third grade certificates . . . when scores of counties held summer normal schools.

It is believed that no other teacher has served the schools of Texas so long as Mr. King.

Man is the only living organism that is hostile to its own kind.

Kleinschmidt Gave Trophies For Three Years to Athletes

Athletic department trophies for honors won as far back as 1942, and including the latest—that given J. W. Malone for being "most valuable" in 1945-46 basketball — were awarded Thursday evening at a banquet in the College Cafeteria.

Large trophies traditionally contributed by J. W. Kleinschmidt, local business man, also were given by him to the following:

1942, football — Joed Forbus of Happy.

1944, football—H. H. Bledsoe of Seymour.

1945, football—Dwaine Lyons of Olton.

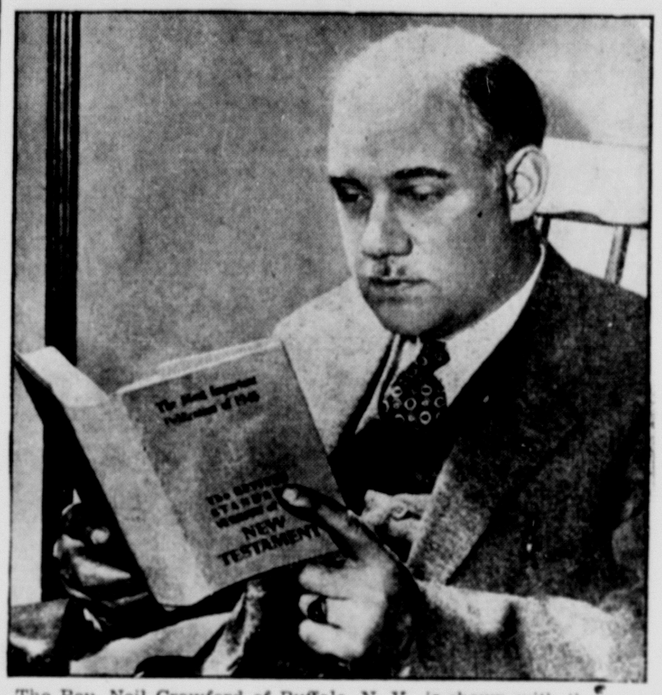
1945, basketball—Clark Johnson of Turkey.

Malone, captain this year and All-American guard last year while a freshman, was tied with Hank Decker, center, when this year's committee of fans made their selections. A toss of a coin gave the honor to Malone.

Dr. D. A. Shirley, chairman of the committee on athletics, was toastmaster. Guests included Dr. R. P. Jarrett, Jr., Harry Gilstrap of the Globe-News, Clyde W. Warwich, Clarence Thompson, and Milton Morris, in addition to members of the committee.

Following the banquet, the group saw motion pictures of 1945 football games.

Reads New Testament in Record Time



The Rev. Neil Crawford of Buffalo, N. Y., is shown with the new modernized edition of the New Testament, which he read in seven hours and 39 minutes, believed to be a record. Thirty-one scholars prepared the 533-page volume. Verses are not paragraphed separately, but are indicated by numbers inserted in the lines. Here is Matthew 27:45-50, grouped in one paragraph: (45) Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land until the ninth hour. (46) And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, la'ma sa-bach-tha'ni?" that is, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (47) And some of the bystanders hearing it said, "This man is calling Elijah." (48) And one of them at once ran and took a sponge, filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink. (49) But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." (50) And Jesus cried again with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit.

Time IS RUNNING OUT!

But a lot of farmers may find themselves in that shape if needed repairs are not made before the opening of spring work.

Shortages and strikes have badly curtailed machinery production.

Needed repairs are almost impossible to get.

If your farming equipment breaks down during the busy season it will simply be too bad.

We urge every farmer to check his equipment now, and not get caught short at harvest time.

Your combine will have to do another big job this harvest. See to it that repairs are made now, and not wait until the rush of harvest.

Twenty-four CHS Seniors Turn Kids Again o n Regular Fun Day

Today, when you run into some little bare-footed kids, with teddy bears and rubber dolls waving around in the air, or when you hear giggling or piercing screams, or if some little ole' brat slaps you across the face with an all-day sucker, then you will know that the time has come for that annual celebration, "Kid Day."

Living up to this tradition of fun are the following twenty-four seniors: Eloise Adams, Norma Jo Currie, Billie Danner, Louise Dickinson, Malcolm Gunter, Johnny Ford, Anita Johnigan, Cheri Kilchriste, Weldon Lindsey, Bobby Mickey, Alice Pierce, Ray McDonald, Jean Prater, Ruth Prichard, Pauline Ruthart, Wilma Schuette, George Schaeffer, Louise Tucek, Billye Jo Wallen, Blake and Norma Zachry, Shirley Harrison, and Jessie Pearl Harding.

Mr. J. B. Speer, Mr. Milton Sanders and the teachers must have nerves of steel to be able to stand all of this, but Mr. T. L. Devin, sponsor of the senior class, and "Kid Day" showed his feelings about all of this "cuttin-up" when he said, "It must make you feel pretty good, after eleven or twelve years of schooling, to be able to act and look as you did when you were just starting in the first grade."

"Oh, my heavens! There's one of those little senior brats (by the name of Louise) coming my way, and just when I'm trying to get my Algebra. She probably wants me to play jacks!"

"That ain't the way you're supposed to jump the rope, Blake! Here, let me show ya'."

"Johnny, you gimme back my sucker. Give it here, or I'll go tell Pappa Devin!"

"Listen here, Jean Prater, I guess I know what two and two are. It's five! I guess I know, even if my name is Ray McDonald."

These are probably just a few of the phrases you'll be hearing today during school, so don't let it get ya' down. After all, if you ever get to be a senior you'll probably do the same thing!

PREVENTION OF CANCER

Did you know that over 2500 boys and girls under 20 will die this year from Cancer? As stated by medical authorities.

This is Cancer Prevention Month and it is to bring this long begotten subject before the public. Many people pay no attention what ever to truly serious illnesses. Irritating a mole or small pimple on the body may cause very serious trouble and often does.

Some helps have been invented for cancer but not for the advanced stages. If you feel that maybe something could be developing, see your doctor right away and try to decrease the huge amount of deaths caused from this disease.

—Cheri Kilchriste.

SAVE A LIFE

"Pass the bread!" "Hey gimmie some bread!" These phases are familiar to most of us as we hear them each day in the lunchroom. As the bread is passed down the table, pieces are slung from side to side on the table and floor. The bread that is wasted day by day in the lunchroom could be feeding the starving people of Europe. We have been asked to conserve all the food possible. The United States has the reputation for being the best fed nation in the world, so let's share a meal and save a life.

Unlucky 13 Answer Spanish Roll Daily

What good will Spanish do you when nine chances out of ten you will never go to Mexico? It does you more good than you realize. It helps you in some of your other subjects such as English, and you learn more about sentence structure and the pronunciation of words because Spanish makes you have a keener sense of sylables. It also helps you know the meaning of any Spanish phrases that you come across when reading or listening to the radio.

Because Spanish is one of the easiest and most beautiful languages spoken, the thirteen members of the Spanish Club are finding that it is interesting as well as a lot of fun.

"Because of the importance of languages in high school, I hope there will be more students taking Spanish next year," states Mrs. A. K. Knott, Spanish instructor.

Higher-ups Take Time to Meet

Leaving the other classes to slave over lessons, the juniors and seniors met at ten o'clock Friday, April 12, in regular class meetings.

Juniors discussed plans for the Junior-Senior banquet, which will be held May 11. They decided to revive the youth center and a committee was appointed to make plans for it, however, nothing definite has been decided as yet. Games and refreshments for a party Friday night were arranged.

Edwin Huff was elected vice-president. Geraldine Small, secretary, presided since the president, James Rigsby, was absent. The class selected "Some Sunday Morning" as the class song and "Forward ever, backward never" as the class motto.

Seniors set the date for kid day, Thursday, April 18. Sneak day and the senior trip were discussed. A committee was appointed to decide on the place because of a recent meeting the school board lifted the ruling of not providing a bus and driver for the outing. Louise Dickinson gave a report on the gift presented to the school at the close of the year. Mr. T. L. Devin and Mrs. W. C. Hornstra took a few minutes at the beginning of the period to thank the class for the gift of hurricane and table lamps presented to them by the play cast in appreciation for their help in coaching the group. The class sang "Happy Birthday" to Jean Prater whose birthday was April 11.

In the girls' volleyball intramurals held during the noon hour, the freshmen met the juniors in a spiritless contest in the first game of the series, Tuesday, April 9. The sophomores defeated the juniors with a score of 15-9 in both games. Sue Dickerson was highpointer with fourteen points.

Trampling the eighth grade, Wednesday, April 10, the sophomores took their opponents to the tune of 15-2 and 15-0. High point player was Billie Bonds with eleven points to her credit.

Senior teamsters out-volleyed the seventh grade Friday, April 12, with scores of 15-6 and 15-6. With ten points to her credit, Louise Dickinson was high pointer in the games.

Battling the seventh grade boys in baseball, the sixth grade won a victory over them with a final score of 5-4.

Beginning Tuesday, April 16, six weeks exams were given and were continued through April 17. Today April 18 will be the ending of the six weeks leaving only six more weeks of school.

An Easter holiday will be observed Friday, April 19, and report cards will be given to the students for this six weeks Wednesday, April 24.

CALLING ALL WABBITS!

What's up Doc? And I reiterate chomp, chomp— Since this Sunday is a'gonna' be Easter, I's thinkin' that maybe all us hares should decide just what color Easter eggs we are a'gonna' hide. Well, business over, meeting adjourned. . . Happy Easter!

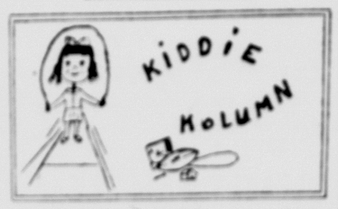
P. S. Holiday Friday!

Seventh Sponsors Aid for Cripples

Total sales amounted to $31.22 from the sale of Easter Seals tha was sponsored by the seventh grade students last week. Cecelia Bosley was high point salesperson.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children made a wide-spread plea for help from the people of Texas.

"The seventh grade did much better with the sales than was expected since many of us had received and bought seals directly from the organization. We are very grateful for the splendid response from the students and townspeople" says Mrs. Irene C. Ball, sponsor of the group.



In preparation for their Easter egg hunts, Thursday, April 18, students of Mrs. Roscoe Davis' first grade, Mrs. Stella Murrell's first grade, Mrs. T. W. Collins' second grade and Mrs. Joe Black's second grade classes dyed eggs Tuesday, April 16.

Absent from Mrs. Mary Gillispie's third grade this week due to illness were Joe Dickerson and La Von Jackson.

Jack Metcalf and Leeman Smith have been absent from Mrs. T. W. Collins' first grade, a week.

Surprising Mrs. A. K. Goodman's third grade class, Dorothy Neblett appeared before them in an authentic Dutch costume. The students are studying a Holland unit.

For their Easter celebration, students of Mrs. Andy Walsh's 5w are having their egg hunt and dinner at Mrs. M. O. Slack's home.

Billie McBroom has been out of school a week, with a broken foot.

Mrs. Mitchell Jones' class of 5j is giving an Easter Play for the students of 5w, Thursday, April 18.

Sanders, Former Teacher, Is New School Board Member

New trustees to serve on the school board were elected Saturday, April 7. Taking Mr. Clay Cooper's, Dr. Harris M. Cook's, and Mr. L. D. Winn's places will be Mrs. Dan F. Sanders, Mr. Bill Crow and Mr. Bradley Burrus. Old members still on the board are Mr. Paul Lindsey, Mr. Wilford Taylor, Jr., Mr. J. W. Spencer, and Mr. Ross Craig.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Mrs. Cecil Simms states that she has seen her high in laziness—Billy Cleavinger. It seems that Billy simply can't walk up to the pencil sharpener—he has to scoot his chair across the room! . . . Oh, and yes, in English II, Mrs. P. S. Merchant asked all her students to give a famous quotation and it's author. That ever smart sophomore, Max McDonald, when asked what his quotation was, answered: "Ugh," by Chief Rain-in-the-face! . . . Remember that peculiar smell last Friday that was scented in our halls? All students thought for sure that we'd have burnt beans for dinner. Mr. Hollabaugh, custodian, therefore went to the lunchroom to investigate, only to find that one bean—one bean mind you, had fallen from the pot and was burned to a crisp! It's funny how much stink such small things can raise, isn't it? . . . Ellen Roberts of 7-1 stated that "a compound sentence is helpless and has an adjective and a predicate in it." . . . Also, one bright senior says that she's going to name her next dog "Peeve" so she can say "Meet my pet, Peeve!" Get it? . . . One of the boys identified a sentence as "four years of English." . . . And the cucumber wouldn't fall for the honeydew 'cause she can't elope (cantelope!)

Rogers Addresses Teachers, Visitors

Speaking before the Classroom Teachers Organization and approximately seventy-five guests, Thursday, April 11, at 8:00 in the C. H. S. auditorium, Superintendent Charles M. Rogers states: "80% of the U. S. had no more than eighth grade schooling. In World War II, 69% attended high school or college. Military training programs had substantial education bases upon which to build.

"The army is given great credit for educational and visual instruction programs. These programs are largely manned by former students. Army and Navy personnel turn to colleges for specialized training programs."

Listening more to Superintendent Rogers, he says, "There is danger in looking backward and letting old men make policies and plans. Look forward and not backward."

"People should improve health programs. Health examinations for every child should be checked four times, more often for special cases and nurses are needed for checking and follow ups."

"To combat juvenile delinquency, guidance, recreational and cultural programs are needed in community programs in schools. School facilities and staffs should co-operate as it means more people and more money.

"How can we get good teachers? First, pay adequate salaries, and don't expect teachers to maintain such respectable standards of living."

Even more helpful, educational and advisable suggestions were given by Mr. Rogers.

R. S. Lazenby, a chemist, created "Dr. Pepper," in Waco, in 1885.

Popular W. T. Variety Show Is Away On Globe-News Sponsored Road Trip

West Texas State's Variety Show pleased two large audiences last week but has a much bigger schedule this week, when at least seven performances will be given.

At present the show is on a Globe-News sponsored three - day tour which will take the troupe to Dumas, Spearman, Perryton, Borger, Phillips, Panhandle, Pampa, and White Deer. Sponsored programs will be given at Perryton and at Panhandle. The war memorial fund will be the beneficiary at Panhandle, where women's clubs are sponsoring the show.

Last Wednesday the Collegians gave a performance at Tulia High School. Kress and other nearby schools also sent students to the show. The Panhandle Press Association heard the West Texans Friday evening. More than 300 persons were present. Wes Izard was toastmaster.

The journalists applauded tumbling acts by the Weast twins and by Mattie Houpt and Jean Boyd; vocal solos by Dorothy Evans, La Nell Ekelund, Ellen Posey, and Dick Fleming; piano solos by Mary Helen Mickey; tap dancing by Miss Ekelund. Dorothy Rae Bivens, was master of ceremonies.

WOMAN'S EFFICIENCY

A Dutchman was recently expatiating on the folly of giving women the vote. He declared that in Holland there was greater efficiency among the female sex where they did not possess that doubtful privilege. He pointed to the fact that the Dutch woman sits with one foot on the spinning wheel or churn, and with the other she rocks the cradle containing the twins. With her hands she knits socks for her husband, while on her knee rests a book from which she is improving her mind. And all the while she sits on a cheese, pressing it for market.

ORINTHOLOGICAL

A student assistant at the public library was accosted by a primly dressed woman who said she had finished reading the last of Laura Jean Libbey's writings, and that she would like something just as good. The young assistant scanned the shelf and offered a book to the applicant.

"Perhaps you would like this—A Kentucky Cardinal."

"No," was the reply, "I don't care for theological works."

"But," hastily explained the kindly assistant, "this cardinal was a bird."

"That would not recommend him to me," said the woman briskly—and moved away in search of a librarian who would be a better judge of character.

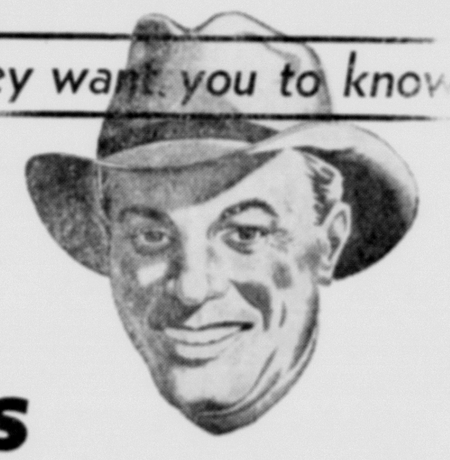
Farmers are your neighbors - They want you to know



Cooperatives

"As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy".

—Abraham Lincoln

build DEMOCRACY

"of the people, by the people, for the people"

THE Declaration of Independence declared "all men are equal". Abraham Lincoln further defined our democracy as "government of the people, by the people, for the people."

Your neighbors, the farmers, have taken the Declaration and Lincoln's definition literally. They have based their cooperative enterprise on those principles of American government.

Each has a voice and a vote in its affairs. Each shares in the cooperative savings in proportion to the amount of his patronage.

Farmers have seen to it that no "Mr. Moneybags" holds a controlling interest by owning a majority of the stock. One man, one vote is the rule.

If it is true that deeds are better than words, then the farmers have built real democracy through cooperative enterprise. And, success of farmers' co-ops has built renewed faith in democratic processes. Let's keep that faith.
